

June Critical Reflection Prompts

the empowered educator

1. What moments made me feel confident & empowered this month during planning?

2. What did I identify that is really frustrating or difficult about my planning cycle?

3. What would I like to change about my current documentation system? Why?

4. What will my planning cycle look like for me next month after making changes?

5. How can I see my program is linking to current service philosophy?

6. How do I seek input & record children's voices to guide my ongoing program?

7. What templates, formats or digital resources do I use to observe children?

8. What area of the planning cycle or assessment do I need more information on ?
